Customer Reviews

This is a great book. The compositions are really beautiful. I like the darker, slower stuff, and this is one of the few of these kinds of compilations that has several songs like that. There's also a lot of variety, so anyone can find at least a few tunes they'd like to play. I'd not recommend it for super-beginners, though. The music is a little complex and there's a lot of switching between clefs which could be confusing to someone just learning to read music. Otherwise, definitely worth every penny, and the CD it comes with is really nice to listen to.

This was a GREAT buy! I struggle to find celtic and Scottish music written for the cello, and this book is a goldmine of great pieces!! I am very happy with this music!!

I love the music in this book. The CD that comes with the book is great. It makes me want to play all of the music!

Lovely music

My 13 yo son and I are both enjoying exploring some new songs. Scottish music sounds great when it's played by a cellist!
