The tunes are recognizable and easy to play. My 5th grader who has been playing trombone for a little more than 6 months now looks forward to practicing using this book. It's much more fun for him to play songs he knows than the unidentifiable selections in his band materials. I've noticed his range has improved considerably since he's been practicing these songs.

This has given my child numerous hours of practice fun. Thank you for making learning a delight. Her skill level has definitely increases because of this.
